CITY TRUSTEES MEET

TRANSACTION USUAL BUSINESS IN SESSION, WHICH IS RECORD FOR BREVITY

The trustees of the City of Glendale were in session only 57 minutes at the regular meeting Monday evening. This meeting, according to a statement made by O. A. Lane, president of the board, was the shortest in his recollection, and Mr. Lane has been a member of the board for more than five years.

There were present at the meeting O. A. Lane, president of the board, and Trustees Charles Grist, J. S. Thompson, A. W. Tower and George Williams. Also J. C. Sherer, City Clerk; E. M. Lynch, City Engineer; H. B. Lynch, Manager of the Public Service Department; A. H. Lankford, Fire Marshal; G. T. Brewster, Office Clerk. The visitors comprised Dr. G. Irwin Royce, president of the Glendale-Tropico Poultry Association, and Walter M. Ross, secretary of said association, and there was also present a representative of the Glendale Evening News.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Communications were then taken up. A letter was read from the American Cement Products Company, which presented facts concerning marblite lamp posts suitable for installing in front of the city hall. On motion of Trustee Grist the question was referred to the City Manager.

A communication was read from the State Railroad Commission, announcing that that body would soon make investigations concerning the methods used by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company in doing business, and any information as to rates, service and manner of doing business that can be given by the city will be gladly received. The question was, on motion, referred to the City Manager, City Attorney and Manager of the Public Service Department.

A report was read from Dr. R. E. Chase, City Health Officer, which showed only one case of scarlet fever and one house fumigated during the month of September. "That shows Glendale to be a healthy place," remarked Mayor Lane at the close of the reading of the report.

Resolution Number 847, for the improvement of Lincoln place, was read and adopted, all trustees voting aye. This resolution is published in another column of this issue of The Evening News.

A resolution to close up and vacate Stanley avenue was then taken up for consideration, and on motion of Trustee Tower the resolution was adopted.

City Engineer E. M. Lynch reported particulars concerning the Verdugo wash which he had been previously instructed to prepare. The report was on motion of Trustee Tower received and placed on file.

At a previous meeting members of the Glendale-Tropico Poultry Association had asked for an appropriation to aid in defraying the expenses of the second annual exhibit which will be held in Glendale next winter. On motion of Trustee Grist an appropriation of $50 was set aside for this association.

An ordinance for the regulation of motor busses in the city of Glendale was taken up for a first and second reading: The ordinance among other things stipulates that operators of motor busses must provide a $5,000 insurance bond which may be used to cover damages in case of accidents, and that no passengers will be allowed to sit on a fender, door or other parts outside of the body of the machine. The ordinance also forbids the carrying of more than two passengers in addition to the capacity of the car.

On motion a recess of 15 minutes was taken for the purpose of giving the finance committee time to audit the demands. Upon the reconvening of the board a motion prevailed that all demands be allowed. H. B. Lynch, Manager of the Public Service Department, requested that the board advertise for bids for furnishing globes for the electric light standards to be installed on Brand boulevard north of First street. On motion of Trustee Grist the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids as recommended by the public service manager.

City Manager T. W. Watson and City Attorney W. E. Evans were absent on account of illness, which fact probably accounted for the brevity of the meeting.

BENSON IS GUEST OF HONOR

Rear Admiral William S. Benson, chief of operations of the navy, is to be the honor guest tonight at Pittsburgh's Columbus Day celebration.

MOVES IN MONTROSE

CLUBHOUSE TO BE BUILT AT THE CORNER OF OCEAN
VIEW AND MONTROSE
AVENUES

"Montrose is slowly forging ahead," said Mr. J. W. M. Burton, general manager of the Glendale & Montrose Railway, to a representative of The Glendale Evening News. Naturally in dull times one does not look for a great deal of development; but all the same there is always some movement going on. Montrose has a future before it when it will share in the general development of the state that is sure to come before long. Meanwhile it continues adding a family here and a building there, and demonstrating that there is life in it.

"For instance, the other day Robert A. Walton purchased J. Frank Walters' interest in the Montrose town site. Mr. Walton has moved into his new house and is laying the sidewalks, curbs, etc., and improving the grounds.

Extensive preparations are being made for the erection of a new clubhouse at the corner of Ocean View and Montrose avenues. The clubhouse will stand in the midst of three acres of ground, which will be beautifully laid out with walks, shrubbery, flowers and trees. There will be an up-to-date lawn tennis court, and somewhere along the hillside close to the clubhouse a golf course will be laid out. This will be a very welcome addition to the town and will serve as an attraction to outsiders.

"Dr. Cloud sold a few days ago five acres of his ten-acre holding to a Mr. Woods, of Los Angeles, who is building a fine residence on it. There is also considerable building and settling going on at the end of the car line.

"Mr. J. Frank Walters is making arrangements to put in another water supply at a cost of $150,000. The stage line from Little Lands from this time on will make connections at La Crescenta with the through cars to Los Angeles, instead of going into Glendale.

"The Glendale & Montrose Railway is putting in siding at Verdugo Park bridge so as to be able to make the fill for the approach to the bridge as soon as the contract has been let for finishing La Canada boulevard. This work will be finished before the rains come, and by the time the wet weather is here we hope to be running our cars across the bridge.

"It might be well to note that the Glendale & Montrose Railway, at the last meeting of the Eagle Rock Chamber of Commerce, made arrangements for the standard gauging of the Eagle Rock division of the road. This will be finished as rapidly as possible, so as to have the ties down before the next street contract is let. By means of this making over of the track it will be possible to freight the material for the road at considerably less cost than has been possible hitherto.

"This will mean a saving of thousands of dollars yearly to Eagle Rock and will do a great deal to further the development of that interesting and growing town. In every way I believe there is going to be a good time ahead of the Glendale & Montrose Railway through its successful operation through this trying period means the strictest economy in business management."

CITY BOUNDS MARKED OUT

"If you want to see what has been done in the city in the way of cutting down and burning up the weeds," said Mr. T. W. Watson, city manager, go outside the city limits and stand on one of the neighboring heights. There you will see the contrast between the cleaned off city area and the weed-covered section outside. The city lies as plainly defined as if laid out on a sheet of drawing paper with pencil and compass. This is specially noticeable toward the northeast. There can be no two opinions as to the difference in the appearance of the city. It is apparent to the most casual observer.

Others have been reported as hanging around houses apparently watching what opportunities might occur for petty thefts or sizing up conditions with a view to bolder work.

FOR FLOWER LOVERS

HEADQUARTERS OF THE LOCAL GARDEN SOCIETY NOW AT 1111 WEST BROADWAY

Already the headquarters of the Glendale Garden Society promises to become a factor in horticultural interests. Local visitors and absolute strangers drop in, attracted by the handsome gold lettering on the window of 1111 West Broadway. All are made welcome. Mr. M. B. Hartmann, of St. Paul, Minn., is one of the latest recruits. This gentleman is a life member of the State Horticultural Society of Minnesota. He has visited the principal flower shows of the world, has gained many prizes and is an expert on horticultural subjects.

Mr. Hartmann is the inventor of a very ingenious arrangement for the display of flowers. This contrivance contains twelve holders for blooms, shows off the blossoms to greatest advantage, and keeps them from fading. He has generously placed the use of this contrivance at the disposal of anyone who wishes to exhibit at the coming Flower Show in Los Angeles. Visitors to headquarters on West Broadway can examine it at their leisure; a beautiful photograph of same filled with flowers can also be seen.

Glendale residents who have flowers or plants the beauty of which they would like others to share, are invited to bring them at any time to headquarters, where they will be displayed and well taken care of. All questions cheerfully answered. Phone Glendale 1357.

REVELATIONS AND SINGER

The mid-week service at the First Congregational church, Third and Central, promises to be of unusual interest. Mr. Langton A. Madden, of Los Angeles, is to be present and sing several songs and lead the song service. Mr. Madden has had a most remarkable Christian experience, he is a "twice born man." As a leader of song in special services he is highly endorsed and renders much valuable service. Those who have been fortunate enough to hear him endorse him most highly.

At this meeting a beginning will be made of a study of the Book of Revelations. It is the plan of Dr. Willisford who will lead in the studies to make them interesting and helpful.

Those who can are recommended to read Dr. James Allen Geissinger's recent book on Revelations, "Heart Problems and World Issues." A candid reading of this book will reveal the beauty and value of a Bible book but little understood. All who can should attend this first meeting for an helpful and suggestive outline of the book will be given and the plan of study will be outlined.

The public and all who desire a deeper and better knowledge of the Word of God are cordially invited to attend.

How many can tell who wrote the Book of Revelation, when it was written, why it was written, to whom it was written, what is meant by the beast? These and many other important questions will be considered. Those who attend will do well to bring Bibles and note books.

AMERICAN ACCOMPLISHMENT IN PHILIPPINES

One does not hear a great deal about the Philippines these days. That is not because there is not anything of interest in the islands or in connection with American government of them; but because larger subjects are at present occupying the public eye. Still with the ever-increasing importance of the Pacific Coast and of the Philippine trade the United States is being compelled to consider the question of the future of the islands this country acquired from Spain.

Ever since the United States took over the care of the islands it has been unselfishly striving to give them good government and to train their people into good citizenship. The happiness, peace and prosperity of the Philippine people have been the objects for which all the American governors from Taft onward have striven. The majority of the people today are happy, peaceful and prosperous,—that is the majority who are under the influence of American rule.

What has been done by the United States in the islands has been marvelous. Under Governor-General Forbes the whole of the islands have been brought over to a policy of good roads. To bring them to accept and pay for such a system voluntarily is one of the greatest of the many triumphs of good government in the Philippines.

Under the beneficent rule of the United States the people have been gradually taught to plant the crops necessary for their welfare and in this way to become independent of the importation of rice from foreign countries. Their cities and villages have been made sanitary. This herculean task was accomplished with much difficulty but it has been accomplished and the death rate of the island reduced two thirds.

There are eight million people in the islands. Of these two million are children. The United States has been gradually building schools that afford the natives an education just as good as that which they can get in the United States. Those schools have been an immense attraction to the natives who learn with wonderful rapidity and value education as the means of making them equal to the Americans as they think. Year by year sees the revenues of the islands increasing and the sum available for education increasing also. In a few years it will be possible to have a law making education compulsory.

Meantime there is always an element both in the United States and in the islands that is urging the turning over of the islands to the natives. Should this ever be done several things may happen. Other nations besides the United States have interests in the islands. They have come there to trade under the guarantee of the United States and they would not sit quiet under such a regime as the semi-improved native would give them. Then the Japanese would like to get the islands. Japan is aiming at the control of the Pacific and has obtained quite a hold on that vast domain within the past year. Her intrigues in the Philippines are well known and it is not too much to say that in the course of a very short time the islands would be in the power of that country or the United States would have to fight for securing their independence.

Every American concern that has invested money in the islands is desirous of the protection of the flag. There will soon it is said, be one hundred million dollars invested in the islands. The people are on the whole so sensible of the benefits they have received that they do not want to see any termination of the American rule.

In this light it is seen that the United States has been a vast benefactor of the islands and is likely to retain them for many a long year to come to their own great profit and the improvement of the condition of their people.

QUESTION OF RURAL CREDITS

Throughout the month of October the State Commission on Rural Credits and Agricultural Finance will be engaged in holding a notable series of public hearings in different parts of the state. This is a matter of considerable importance to the whole state and it is satisfactory to note that the legislative committees of the various societies are now discussing the need for a system of rural credits. This is also a long step forward in the effort to secure accurate and complete data about agricultural and horticultural conditions in California. This inquiry will reveal the condition of the small farmer, and will go far to determine if he is in need of such assistance as a credit system would afford.

This evidence will be gathered from the farmers themselves, and also from the bankers throughout the state who are necessarily acquainted with the conditions from a financial point of view that prevail among the farming communities. The commission will then file this information with the Governor of the state, and will recommend the kind of system which in their judgment ought to be established. This will then be submitted to the legislature, provided Constitutional amendment No. 17 (No. 5 on the ballot) should be approved by the people on October 26. There will be a hearing in Los Angeles October 14-15.

Voters should read carefully over the measure provided for in this constitutional amendment and take the opportunity, on October 26, of making it possible for the legislature to establish a safe system of rural credits. Under the present system it is not possible for the state to lend its credit for that purpose. The proposed amendment, which has been submitted to the people by the legislature does not of itself establish a rural credit system, but it makes it permissible for the legislature to pass such an act if it should so decide.

Many of the best authorities on rural matters in California are strongly in favor of some conservative system of rural credits. They think it would solve the problem of land colonization and be a relief to many small farmers who are now in a dangerous position financially. Voters should study this amendment and decide if it would not be well for them to enable the state to lend a helping hand to farmers of the smaller sort now in danger of bankruptcy and at the same time extend financial assistance to those who are desirous of taking up land for agricultural purposes.

What an affirmative vote on this amendment would give the legislature would be the power to provide a system of land colonization with a system of rural credits in aid of the agriculture of the state. It would include provisions for the issuance of bonds secured by first mortgages on farm real estate. These bonds would be exempt from taxation, and could be accepted as security for the deposit of public moneys. The legislature would be empowered to provide for the participation of the state in such a system of rural credits by establishing a trust fund. It would also be authorized to issue bonds on the collateral or other securities of such a fund. It would guarantee on behalf of the state the principal and interest of such bonds. It would authorize the trustees to buy, sell and deal generally in rural credit bonds, secured by first mortgages on farm real estate. It might also pass all laws necessary to give full force and effect to the system. There seem to be both reason and sound argument in favor of such a system, and the voters would do well to give it favorable consideration.

MAKING OLD AGE EASY

To grow old gracefully is not an easy matter even under the best of circumstances, but it is trebly difficult when infirmities are added to natural disability. When a man has labored all life long for a very small remuneration it is surely the duty of those who have profited by his labors to see that he does not starve and also that he has some kind of attention and care should he need it.

It is becoming the custom nowadays to make provision for old people by providing them with state pensions. This is done in New Zealand, Australia, Britain and elsewhere. The experiment is in its infancy and as yet it has found no favor in the United States. At the same time it has always been the custom to provide a small pension for certain professional men, schoolmasters, clergymen and others who have put in their time at public work. In like manner the civil service provides pensions for its employees and those who have borne the burden and heat of the day are not cast out to the mercies of a cruel and indifferent world.

There are doubtless many in Glendale who can think of instances in their own experience where men and women who have been known to them for their good and excellent work in the day of their strength have been permitted to fall into a condition of neglect and even poverty. It seems a pity that such should be the case in any land where Christian principles are supposed to prevail.

There is a service that a few choice souls do for humanity that rarely receives the reward it deserves. In fact it would be impossible to express such service in dollars and cents; but equally the man who day after day pays down the coinage of his brain and the sum of his acquirements for the benefit of a rising generation deserves something better than to be cast aside when he is no longer able to work to find a living as best he can. Nothing in short can be too much to pay for the value of the moral uplift exerted on the world by the unselfish teacher who lifts up the eyes and hearts of the youth of the land to a higher ideal. Such men deserve tender care, such women need the reward of thoughtful remembrance and to neglect them, whether man or woman, is to be guilty of base ingratitude.

It seems a pity that the aged should be forgotten and their services ignored. In the early Christian centuries the churches looked after their own poor and never permitted an apostle to suffer want. Even Paul's independence was not always able to dispense with the kindly assistance of the members of his flock in the different cities.

Where old age has brought infirmities, mental or physical, in its train, there should be a greater effort made by kindly disposed people to assist those who once occupied a position of honor and bore the burden and heat of a long day. It is pitiable to see such an one stretched out upon the rack of this tough world and the least that the world can do is to alleviate this condition.

The National Cyclist's Union has given 2000 members to the British infantry while 600 members have joined the Army Cyclist Corps.

While Carranza is priding himself on recognition by the United States, his astute opponent, Villa, is laying in a stock of provisions by raiding the Texas border and driving off the cattle. Villa evidently expects a winter campaign.

Fruit Bavaroise

Boil together one cupful of water and three-quarters of a cupful of sugar for five minutes; add two tablespoonfuls of gelatin which has been dissolved. When cold add half a cupful of fruit juice and one teaspoonful of vanilla extract, and stand on ice until the mixture begins to thicken. Stir in carefully two cupfuls of thick cream whipped to a stiff froth, and one cupful of fresh ripe fruit which has been cut in small pieces. Turn into a mold, cover tightly and bury in ice and salt for four hours.

The Pythian Sisters of Tropic will hold their annual bazaar and supper Thursday, November 18, in K. of P. hall.

The evening's entertainment will close with dancing. These annual bazaars and suppers are important events in the history of this Pythian temple, and each member is striving to render this year's bazaar as good, if not even more interesting than those of previous years have been.

The interior of the First Methodist Episcopal church, was very prettily decorated Sunday in palms and potted plants donated for the occasion by Mr. Goto. Mrs. Eustace Benton Moore superintended the decorations, which were arranged as a welcome to the new pastor, Rev. Ford, who has been transferred from the Hamilton Methodist Episcopal Church of Los Angeles, to the Tropic Church.

The choir rendered several anthems with Mrs. Sydney Frederickson as soloist. A special song service was given at the evening services.

The Kensington Club will hold an all day meeting in G. A. R. hall, on Wednesday, October 13. Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. L. S. Jenkins, Mrs. M. Brakeman, Mrs. Nina Richards and Mrs. W. Hudson. A portion of the day will be devoted to preparing suitable decorations for the banquet room. The ladies of N. P. Banks' Corps are having the interior of the banquet room repainted and decorated, and the pretty floral decorations which the Kensington Club are arranging will add to the general appearance of the hall very materially.

The First National Bank of Tropic observed October 12, Columbus Day, by taking the holiday this institution being closed all day.

Mrs. Myra C. K. Shuey, of Columbus avenue, is spending the week in Burbank as the guest of Mrs. Ralph Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson C. Ayres of Los Angeles are spending a few days in Tropic as the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Ayres of North Central avenue.

Miss Alberta Justema was a weekend guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Justema, 304 South Central avenue.

Mrs. George Eley, 1210 Lomita avenue, who has been quite ill with an attack of grippe, has so far recovered as to be out for a short time in the sunshine.

Miss Moore, of 1504 West Fifth street, accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Caldwell and daughter, of New York, on a very pleasant trip to the San Diego fair. They returned Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Holbrook, of Seattle, Wash., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. McMillan, 217 East First street. Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook are greatly pleased with Glendale and intend to settle here.

Dr. and Mrs. Colin Cable, 755 South Columbus avenue, accompanied by Judge R. E. Cable of Kansas City, were dinner guests, Monday night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bosserman, 814 South Central.

Mrs. Joseph Guidinger and her mother, Mrs. Foster, 238 South Maryland avenue, leave for San Francisco tomorrow. They will spend two weeks in the northern city visiting the fair and their friends.

Congressman W. D. Stephens has sent the following characteristic message to Mrs. Nanno Woods, 1111 West Broadway: "I am sending you a map that may help some. May peace and prosperity attend you."

Miss Minnie Moore, 1504 West Fifth street, is entertaining her aunt, Mrs. Caldwell and daughter, of New York, and also another aunt, Mrs. Williams of Chicago. Mrs. Caldwell and Mrs. Williams are visiting California and the expositions.

Mrs. George W. Wilkins, who has been managing successfully a large poultry ranch on Rock Glen avenue, is moving into the southwestern part of the city, to a ranch at San Fernando road and Colorado boulevard, where she will continue her business.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone of Gibson City, Ill., who have been residing at 854 Rock Glen avenue, for some time, are looking around for a suitable place of residence. They are greatly pleased with Glendale and its climate and will probably settle here. Mr. Stone is a retired banker.

Mrs. J. D. Horton, wife of J. D. Horton, formerly of Eagle Rock, now of Glendale, was favored with the advent of twins at the Thornycroft hospital, where she is now making a very favorable recovery. The twins are a boy and girl and are remarkably fine and healthy infants.

Mr. J. D. Horton, the well-known capitalist of Eagle Rock, has decided to leave that section and make his residence in Glendale. Mr. Horton has purchased the W. L. Truitt residence on Ninth street, and is now moving in. He has always had a warm admiration for this city, and has only been waiting to find a suitable residence property in order to make the change.

Mrs. Margaret Hageman, Monmouth, Ill., mother of Mrs. Sarah Van Dyke, and grandmother of Mr. Charles M. Van Dyke, 1430 West Third street, died at her home Monday night. Mrs. Hageman was 83 years of age, but was exceedingly active and full of service to the last week of her life. She could read, sew and perform all her duties, even at her advanced age, as well in many respects, as in the day of her strength.

Miss Alice Frank, 578 East Third street, who has been for some time prominent in the work of the Egan Dramatic School at Los Angeles, has obtained a position with the Monrovia Feature Film Company. Miss Frank's training has enabled her to secure a position of some importance with this enterprising company, which is to put on a spectacular picture Saturday, October 23. This picture will be a representation of the burning of San Francisco. Monrovia is to hold a civic holiday on that date, when the miniature city will be burned. The finished film will form part of the epilogue in the great photoplay "The Argonauts of '49."

A POLISH ODE TO LIBERTY

The Polish biographer of the Polish lyricist Sarbiewski, famous for his Latin verse at the beginning of the seventeenth century, says that no one has approached Horace nearer than he. From his "Ode to Liberty" the following lines have been translated, first into Polish and then into English:

Queen of brave nations, Liberty!
What land thy favorite seat shall be?
What land more suited to thy reign
Than Poland's fertile charming plain?
Daughter of council and of bliss,
The mother and nurse of peace,
Thou, sought 'mid many dangers round,
Midst more than many dangers found,
Higher than thrones thy throne we see,
Majestic more than majesty,
Thou mistress of our country's fame
Now stop thy course—thy smile we claim.
Arrest thy cloud encircled car
And linger where thy votaries are!

RAYMOND LECTURE

A wonderful opportunity is now being offered to Glendale. Professor Jerome H. Raymond, Ph.D., of the chair of political science of Chicago University is to give a course of three lectures under the direction of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations, at the High School on the three successive Saturday nights in October.

Prof. Raymond is sent out by the University of Berkeley to lecture for the extension course, and it is very fortunate that we are able to bring so noted a lecturer to Glendale.

The exceptionally fine collection of stereopticon views with which his lectures are illustrated lend added interest to subject matter, which without the picture would be of great value educationally. He has lectured before the largest universities and clubs in the United States who have all heartily endorsed his work in warmest words of praise.

Judge Ben Lindsay, of Denver, says: "It is simply impossible in any words to do justice to his lectures. I have never received so much pleasure and enlightenment from any lecture."

He has a wonderful delivery and a magnificent flow of language, which, added to his scholarly attainments, place him in the front rank of the ablest lecturers in this country."

Miss Jane Addams says, "His lectures are the most successful ever given at Hull House, the speaker's lucid discussion of social changes in the countries upon which he spoke were followed with intense interest. Hundreds were turned away."

Of his course in Santa Barbara the papers speak thus, "A voice of great range and resonant timbre and a charming diction make it a delight to listen to Prof. Raymond. His personal knowledge of the cities he describes and intimate side lights on their life give a flavor that the mere book learned scholar could not supply."

The price of admission is so low that it will not keep anyone away, and those who do not attend all three will miss a great treat.

The following people have endorsed the lecture course and purchased one or more course tickets: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Braly, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Prof. and Mrs. George U. Moyle, Prof. and Mrs. Harry L. Howe, Prof. and Mrs. R. D. White, Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. M. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Preston, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. John Robert White, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Baker, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Chase, Mrs. D. H. Imier, Mrs. B. F. Nichols, Mrs. W. L. Truitt, Mrs. Leroy Bosserman, Mrs. Cora Taylor, Mrs. Fred Hagin, Mrs. C. D. Lusby, Miss Waite, Mrs. Colin Cable, Mrs. A. R. Dimmick, Mrs. H. A. McPherson, Mrs. E. W. Richardson, Mrs. Arthur C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barton, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Willisford.

NEW OVERLAND AGENCY

With the passing of the Overland agency into new hands a new regime will be inaugurated in the work of bringing that well-known automobile into favor with the Glendale public. The new agent is Mr. L. Meyers, who has had considerable experience in the business, and recently was sales agent for the Overland agency in Los Angeles.

The Overland agency will be located at the corner of Colorado boulevard and Brand. The spacious quarters there will be adapted in every way for the conduct of an up-to-date automobile business. The firm will carry all makes of the Overland from the powerful, modern Overland Six touring car to the roadster and the runabout. The Overland five-passenger will be a specially popular feature among the others.

Mr. Meyers is delighted with the prospects for business in Glendale and is especially pleased with the hearty reception he has received on all sides. He is persuaded that with Glendale as a center he will do a large and profitable business. Mr. Meyers will be assisted by his son, Mr. L. Meyers, Jr., as sales agent and, also by Mr. H. T. Childers, formerly sales agent with the Overland agency at Pasadena.

"Does your husband ever lie to you?"

"Never."

"How do you know?"

"He tells me I do not look a day older than I did when he married me, and if he doesn't lie about that, I don't think he would about less important matters."

SEE THIS PIANO BARGAIN

"Well, Rastus," said the colonel, "I understand your club has declined to admit Julius to membership."

"Dat's a fact, kuhnel," returned the old dorky. "Ah dunno what de objection to Julius was, but when de come to vote dey whiteballed him."

WEATHER FORECAST

Fair tonight and Wednesday; west winds.

SELF-CONFIDENCE

For a novice to take delivery on a new car and start away immediately on a two-thousand-mile trip indicates a self-confidence out of the ordinary. C. C. Ronnow, of Las Vegas, Nevada, had sufficient nerve to undertake such a trip and demonstrated his ability to do it by purchasing a Dodge Bros. motor car from Harold L. Arnold, distributor for Southern California, for his vacation jaunt to the exposition at San Francisco. Mr. Ronnow is chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Clark County in Nevada, and reached his decision to own a Dodge Bros. car when he saw the "Death Valley Dodge" in Las Vegas, when it was making the return trip through Nevada, the first week in June, after successfully negotiating the crossing of Death Valley at Stovepipe Wells. At that time Mr. Ronnow closely questioned Engineer O. K. Parker, who drove the "Death Valley Dodge" on its strenuous journey, and because of Mr. Ronnow's own knowledge of the extremely difficult route which the Dodge car had negotiated he settled right then and there in his own mind that any car which could pull through the terrible sands of Death Valley and the steep mountain grades of the Panamint and Funeral ranges without mechanical trouble, was exactly the machine he wanted for his personal use.

On the way to San Francisco Mr. Ronnow will drive the Dodge into the Yosemite Valley, taking the side trip to the summit of Glacier Point, at an elevation of over 8,000 feet, then, after visiting the exposition, will drive across the Sierra Nevada and over the Truckee Summit to Lake Tahoe, returning to his home in Las Vegas by way of Reno, Carson City, Goldfield and Rhyolite, the total distance of the trip being something over 2,000 miles, one-half of which will be mountain and desert driving.

CHICKEN RECIPES

Spanish Chicken—Prepare the chicken the same as for the southern smothered recipe. When the water has nearly boiled out add a pint of rich tomato sauce highly seasoned, a chopped pepper, a grated onion, a teaspoonful of chopped tarragon leaves, six stoned and coarsely chopped olives, and a dozen seeded raisins. Let cook for 10 minutes, then add a tablespoon of mushroom catsup. Serve garnished with baked peppers stuffed with the giblets chopped with crumbs, one egg, half a gill of butter, half a gill of cream and savory seasoning. The tomato is, of course, thickened to the consistency of honey before being added to the chicken. Serve on slices of toast with the peppers around the outer edge of the platter.

Curried Chicken—Prepare one large frying chicken by jointing it in the usual way. Put two ounces of butter into the frying pan and add three sliced onions, one chopped apple and the chicken. Fry all a delicate brown, then add one pint of white stock in which a dessertspoonful of curry powder and a tablespoonful of flour have been blended. Let all simmer for half an hour, remove from the fire and add a tablespoonful of lemon juice and four tablespoons of cream. Serve on a hot platter with boiled rice heaped in the center, the chicken arranged around it and the gravy poured over all.

Chicken and Rice Croquettes—Take one cup of minced cold boiled chicken, one cup of boiled rice and one cup of fine crumbs. Add a gill of melted butter, a gill of heavy cream, pepper, salt, juice of an onion, tablespoon of chutney, sirup, and one beaten egg. Form into croquettes, dip in egg and crumbs and fry in hot fat. Serve garnished with cress and lemon quarters, or a good tartare sauce is nice with the croquettes.

Savory Pates—Dice one cup of cold boiled chicken, also dice one cup of sweetbreads that have been parboiled. Sauté in butter one cup of sliced mushrooms and three sliced truffles. Make a rich cream sauce and add all of the ingredients, season to taste, and fill pate shells with the mixture, tucking a spray of parsley under the little pastry lid.

Fruit Souffle

Two cupfuls of fruit juice, two tablespoonfuls of gelatin, three quarters of a cupful of boiling water, four yolk's of eggs, three-quarters of a pint of sugar and two cupfuls of thick cream. Prepare the fruit juice or a mixture of fruit juices. Beat up the eggs with half of the sugar, then add the remaining sugar and the fruit juice. Dissolve the gelatin in the boiling water, and strain it into the mixture. Stir over ice water, and as it thickens add the cream which should be whipped to a stiff froth. Pack in a mold in ice and salt for two hours.

Orange Fritters

An excellent orange fritter, suitable either for luncheon or for desert for dinner, may be made by adding to the plain fritter batter an extra egg and extra sugar, the grated peel of one orange and a half cupful of candied orange peel. This should be served with a hot orange sauce made from the juice and peel of another orange, two tablespoonfuls of butter, one cup of sugar and one tablespoonful of cornstarch, thoroughly blended, the grated peel added with one cup

JANE ADDAMS ON WOMAN'S STATUS

Jane Addams, of Hull House, Chicago, emphasized and explained "the social and political status of the educated woman," which was the general theme of all exercises in today's celebration of Vassar's founding, at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Dr. James Monroe Taylor, former president of Vassar, spoke on the same subject.

AID FIREMEN'S CONTEST

Among the societies that are active in the contest for the piano offered by the Southern California Music Company are the volunteer firemen of Glendale. Those young men have been faithful in the performance of their duties and have rendered efficient aid on every occasion when there has been a fire. Their meeting place at night is the fire house, where they remain practically on duty for several hours. It is to the interest of the city to provide such amusement for them there as will induce them to stay in those by no means attractive quarters. Vote for the fireboys. Go to the Southern California Music Company's store, 316 Brand boulevard, and register your vote for the firemen. You don't need to make a purchase. Call at the store and secure a special coupon, fill it out and deposit it there. There are other organizations in the contest, but none so deserving of public support as the volunteer firemen. They are performing an inestimable service for the city during their hours of watching as well as during their hours of active work. Help to bring some music into the dullness of their evenings in the firehouse.

HAT BEFORE GOWN

There are women who buy their hats before their frocks, believing that this is the more satisfactory method of dressing well. The majority buy their clothes without any regard to what hats will go with them and whether it is possible even to obtain a hat that in any way suits the gown. Possibly, in this light, the hat before the frock plan is the better one. It is always possible to improve the seeming hopelessness of a gown by adding an attractive collar and by altering the neck so that the face is thrown out in good relief, but there is rarely a way to twist or turn a hat so that it will serve the purpose for which it was bought, which is to make a face look its best.

The choice of a hat is so important that it behooves every woman to give far more time to it than to any other part of her apparel, says the New York Times. One who knows has claimed that the woman who is absolute master of her neck and her head choosing of a hat. There is much to be learned from the woman who dresses well.

All the skill does not lie in the be worked out in its posing. We have the habit of saying that the Paris woman is the master in this art, and yet Americans are earning the significance of this work.

One is no longer expected to wear black hats, although black velvet is being shown by the first milliners as the best of the early autumn hats.

Last season, and twice before that, this black hat was almost the only fashionable one offered, and women to whom it was not becoming were puzzled in their choice, because they did not want to be out of fashion and yet they preferred to look pretty.

The first color in the millinery market this season is Bordeaux red. "Cathedral colors" is the name given to an assortment of rich stained glass tones that are used in velvets for hats. These are green, brown, red, purple and yellow. Felt is also dyed in these shades and built into stiff sailors, or small brimmed, high-topped hats.

Many of the new hats are draped in a fashion that prevailed three years ago. There is a slight brim that rolls at the side, and the crown is a mass of more or less skillfully arranged velvet, mounting higher and higher. One comforting fact about these new fashions is that they do not oust the sailor shape, which is peculiarly suited to the average American face and which, after all, has a smartness that is difficult to equal in the hat that is made to serve every moment.

CRETONNE FOR CHILDREN

Perhaps the prettiest use of cretonne, says the New Haven Register, is for children's morning dresses, and when combined with plain colored linen for pockets, collar, cuffs and sash and topped with a quaint cretonne sun bonnet the effect is best.

PATCHWORK QUILTS

Piecing the old-fashioned patchwork quilt is again a popular occupation, says the Detroit Free Press. Nursery quilts are made of heavy cotton or linen sketched with designs to be worked with floss. Mother Goose figures being favorites.

Simple patterns done in blue and white or rose and white chambray are chosen for boys' rooms.

The mystic rose design, very popular, calls for a pale pink calico, a rose shade, a rich red and the right shade of green for foliage. The morning glory pattern, of rose and French blue calico, is also a favorite. The "four patches" calls for a white background dotted with tiny pink rosebuds. For a colonial bed, the old log cabin design is chosen.

BIRD JOURNEYS

The little humming bird can do better than the aeroplane, for in its migration across the Gulf of Mexico it flies over 500 miles in a single night. Nearly all birds, in fact, show in their soaring and sailing that they are proficient in the use of several factors in the art of flying that have not yet been mastered either in principle or practice by the most skillful of modern aviators. A vulture or a crane, after a few preliminary wing beats, sets its wings and mounts in wide, sweeping circles to a great height, overcoming gravity with no exertion apparent to human vision even when attested by the most powerful telescopes.

In a Sunday School a teacher asked a small boy if he could tell him how the first woman was made. "Yes, sir," said he with alacrity, "from the jawbone of an ass."

LA CANADA

Mrs. Bolton of Palm Drive, who has been in the hospital under going an operation, came home Sunday and is able to walk around the house.

There was a great deal of excitement at the school house Tuesday morning, when little Miss Inger Nyble was badly cut on the back of the head by one of the swing boards.

Mrs. M. Laris and Rufus Laris have been at Michillinda taking care of their walnut crop. They say the walnuts are very good and that there is a large crop.

The School Trustees have very kindly furnished the library with a table, which was badly needed and is greatly appreciated.

Miss Sophia Burns of Wilton Place, Los Angeles, spent the week end with Mrs. Schieffelin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Schieffelin spent Sunday with Mrs. Schieffelin's mother, Mrs. Boyer, at El Monte.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleburg of Whittier spent Sunday with John Armstrong and family. They lived here some years ago and noted many changes in the valley.

PARIS FASHIONS

Paris has completely repudiated the English idea that there should be little color in ladies' dresses on account of the war. In the Bois de Boulogne there are still to be seen many beautiful costumes and among them many white ones. The newest seem to be made of voiles or crepon, trimmed with bands of white taffetas. But plain pink and light blue linen frocks almost out number the blue serge ones. These also often have leather belts and buttons are in most cases their only trimming and generally these buttons are self covered. Some of these linen frocks are made with white blouses on which touches of color corresponding with the skirt are introduced. For instance a pink linen skirt had a sort of belt or poke piece, which extended into hip pockets, and this was all edged with pink and white striped goods. Then there was a white blouse, the collar, cuffs and shoulder yoke of which were edged with the same striped material. From the skirt rather wide straps at both front and back crossed and mounted on to the blouse, being attached to it by pink buttons, which were arranged in place on the blouse, button holes being made on the straps. Another of blue linen buttoned up on the blouse almost like the bib of an apron.

With these lighter gowns are worn most charming hats, made of silk, linen or organdie. They are sailor shape and the wide brims have two or three flat layers of pink, white, or blue crepe, extending an inch or more generally beyond the edge of the brim, and generally a single large rose is the sole trimming. Sometimes fruit is used for trimming them, grapes being the most popular. A new toque is of white silk, very close fitting and trimmed all around with bunches of small purple grapes and leaves of the same color. Another lot is of white and black striped silk with large white velvet daisies arranged very flat and close all around the edge, the daisies being so large that the huge petals extend partly over the top of the hat. These toques are mere caps, only the rims being stiffened, and the tops not even lined. They are not round, but oval in shape, and it would seem that the most inexperienced person could make one with a few scraps of silk. But though they do not require much material, a great amount of taste would be needed.

Cherry Pie

When stoning cherries (of course you will stone them) use a sharp knife and save all the juice. Grease a deep pie-dish and line it with good puff pastry. Fill generously with the stoned cherries and juice, sprinkle with sugar, about a half-cup, into which a tablespoonful of flour has been rubbed. Cover with a thin crust, which has been pierced or slit to allow the steam to escape. Bake in a steady oven. Eat hot or cold.
